

Kids Connect

Interactive Playgroup for Parents and their children aged 0 - 5 years old

Positive Play, Learning, Relationship Building

- The playgroup is intended for separated families where one carer is seeking to build or re-establish a relationship with a child in a safe, fun and supported environment. Inclusion in this group will normally follow supervised contact but exceptions may apply.
- Kids Connect is an activity based group that promotes having fun and positive play
- Workers will be available to assist you with the activities and keep the session focused on your child
- We provide parenting support and learning.

We are running this program in conjunction with other services of the Children's Contact Centre and will adhere to existing service agreements. A small fee will apply.
