Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse

SA Support Services

Have your say
Tell your story

December 2013

Support is available

For you, family members and/or employees of institutions where sexual abuse may have occurred.

Royal Commission Support Services offer:

- Support and information in how to tell your story to the Commission
- Preparation for talking to the Commission and support after giving submissions
- Access to Nangkari
- Information about what to expect from the process
- Support through legal processes
- Advocacy.

The Royal Commission will investigate where systems have failed to protect children, and make recommendations on how to improve laws, policies and practices to prevent and better respond to child sexual abuse in institutions

The Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse is interested in hearing from people who were sexually abused as children in institutions other than the family home. Institutions can include but are not limited to:

- Schools
- Religious organisations
- Youth groups/organisations
- Out of home care/foster care
- Children's homes/orphanages
- Boys homes
- Hostels
- Government/church run missions/reserves
- Youth detention.
